

Monday March 21, 2005 Edition

In the past 30 days

Sea

SECTIONS

- Home
- News
- Sports
- Opinion
- Features
- Obituaries
- Links
- About Us
- Submit a Letter
- Classifieds

PRINTER FRIENDLYEMAIL TO A FRIEND

Monday March 21, 2005

News Briefs for March 21Spring revival is this week

First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut streets, will hold a spring revival 7 p.m. Monday through Friday. The evangelist will be the Rev. Derrick Brantley from St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Louisville.

Mercer farm gets agri-tourism funds

FRANKFORT - A Mercer County farm got part of funds the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board approved Friday at the board meeting Franklin County Extension Service office.

Terrapin Hill Farm was approved for $27,300 to renovate a farmhouse create an education center focusing on the benefits of local food system while providing a marketing outlet for local farm products.

The funds came from $292,200 in the first round of the 2005 Agri-tourism Competitive Awards Program.

Toliver honor roll students listed

Students named to the Toliver Elementary School honor roll are:

Fourth grade: All A's, Maya Craig-Lauer, Will Graham and Zuleyka Valdez. A's and B's, Karina Angel, Jodi Gay, Elliott Porter, Devon Sellers and Arian Zamani.

Fifth grade: All A's, Rob Caudill, Quincy Essex, Sierra Fitzgerald, Diam Pace and Amanda Russell. A's and B's, Asia Dunn, Jessalyn Dye, Anson, Marc Manheim, Tiffany Nill, Nick Schorr, Kaho Suzuki, John Thomas.

SPECIAL SECTIONS

- Boyle County Oral History
- Kentucky Open Records Project

PHOTOBLOGS

- Photoblogs
- Clay's Daze
- KB

WEBLOGS

- Figg Alley
- Lizany

SERVICES

- Subscribe
- Submit a Classified
- Archives

▪ Buy Photos Online!